Continuing Discussions:

ADE 6385 – Request to add as a foundations course choice for the MA in Career Technical Education
Darlene DeMarie gave her reasoning for the non-concurrence being: not enough communication between the areas and that the replacement of a foundations course which did not contain true foundations material.

Bill Blank restated that he was not replacing the foundations course but was asking that the ADE 6385 be add as an additional choice for the students in the M.A. in Career and Technical Education as the content of ADE 6385 was more suited for their program and it was an online course which meets the needs of their students and is offered regularly.

The GPC deliberated and Jane Applegate made a motion to approve Bill Blank’s request providing it was resubmitted as an option within the Process Core for the M.A. in Career and Technical Education containing the P.O.S. form, and with these revisions will be moved forward to the Consent Agenda in April. The motion was seconded by Brenda Walker. A vote was taken and the motion passed with Jennifer Baggerly abstaining from the vote. Valerie Janesick and Marcus Kilpatrick will review the revised request and documents.

Update on C&I Degree Differentiation – Common Core
EEX 7743 – Philosophies of Inquiry as the Common Core Course
Brenda Walker and Daphne Thomas addressed the GPC on the Issues of Concern for Special Education about using this as the core course. The faculty in Special Education were concerned that: the prefix not be changed, other faculty will be trained in teaching the course and that there be a follow up course in each department which would correspond to the area of concentration.
New Business

M.A. in Educational Studies

Sherman Dorn presented the Pre-proposal for a new program to the GPC. A motion to approve that the pre-proposal move forward was made by Jane Applegate and seconded by Marcus Kilpatrick. The motion passed unanimously with no abstentions.

For the good of the Order

Program Review Questions

Marcus Kilpatrick asked about consistency in the review of programs and asked the entire GPC membership to review his proposal. It was the consensus of the membership that the GPC process works and to follow the regular procedure.

Program Review Form

Lora asked if the committee would like to create a new form for reviewing new programs created using the form currently in use by the UPC. The committee asked this to move forward. Lora will work with Valerie Janesick to create a draft.

The meeting was adjourned.
