

Research Interest of ACHE Faculty

Adult Education Faculty

Dr. Young: Continuing Professional Education, Higher Education/Continuing Education Leadership, Human Resource Development

Dr. James: Learning Styles, Social Roles, Historical Aspects of the Field of Adult Education, International/Global Issues related to Adult Education

Dr. Closson: Experiential Learning Effectiveness in the Classroom, Online, and in Natural Contexts, Learning about Race and Racism when the Majority in the Minority, Global Adult Education Learning Efforts

Career and Workforce Education

Dr. Victor Hernandez-Gantes: Curriculum Integration Issues at the Secondary, Post– Secondary Level, Student Outcomes and Transitions in the Education Pipeline, Broadening Student Participation in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics Oriented Career Pathways

Dr. Johanna Lasonen: Analyzing the Effects of Learning Environments, Gender Equity in Workforce, Work-based Learning, Comparison of International Education and Training Systems, and Investigating Immigrants' Integration into the Workforce.

Dr. Edward Fletcher: High School Students' Schooling Experiences and Student Outcomes (degree attainment and labor market), Teacher Education, Graduate Students' Experiences and Outcomes

Higher Education Faculty

Dr. Kathleen King: Student and Faculty Learning, Distance Learning/Instructional Technology, Diversity Issues—Globalization: Gender, LGBTQ, International Education, Internationalization

Dr. Eison: Alternative Instructional Strategies, Influences upon Student Learning, Faculty Development

Dr. Young: Continuing Professional Education, Higher Education/Continuing Education Leadership, Human Resource Development

Dr. Dellow: Strategies for Teaching Leadership, Internationalization of Higher Education, And Community College Leadership/Higher Education Leadership Competencies