

COEDU 2008 – 2009 GRANT OVERSIGHT WORKSHOP SERIES

OVERWHELMING SUCCESS!!!

On November 14, 2008 the COEDU launched the first in a series of grant oversight and compliance workshops for faculty, research staff and administrative personnel. Approximately 50 attendees participated in two November 14th sessions entitled Institutional Review Board procedures, by Various Menzel, Research, Integrity & Compliance and Navigating the Proposal Submission Process, by Priscilla Pope, Associate Vice President for Research.

The second standing room only session took place on January 23, 2009. Jeff Muir, Chief Compliance Officer, University Audit and Compliance conducted a session entitled, Principle Investigator Oversight and the Importance of Grant Compliance and Kate Head, Associate Director of University Audit and Compliance conducted a session entitled Surviving an Audit.

The most recent session took place on February 27. Our very own Ruby Jackson spoke to a packed room on grant oversight and Human Relations (HR) Protocol. Jennifer Condon, USF Associate Controller completed the morning with a session entitled, Monitoring Your Grant Financials: The Do's and the Don'ts.

Jeff Muir, USF Chief Compliance Office Conducting COEDU Workshop

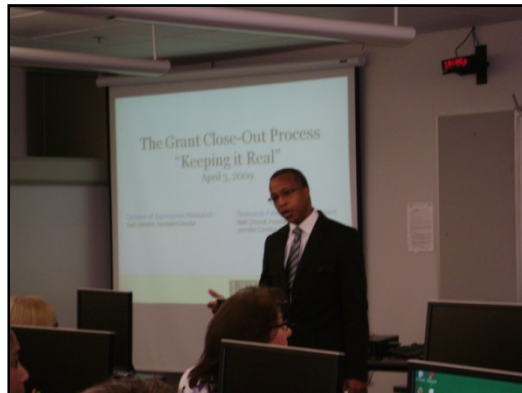

Kate Head, Associate Director, University Audit & Compliance with Elizabeth Dhondt, Assistant Controller, Research Financial Management Leading COEDU Audit Workshop

*Special Acknowledgement to Moni Dickerson, Grace Wang for Coordinating the Workshop Series and Lindsay Kaufman for Facilitating Workshop Logistics

Ruby Jackson, COEDU Human Resources Leading COEDU Workshop on HR & Grant Compliance Protocol

The final COEDU Grant Oversight Session took place on April 3, 2009. Jennifer Condon, Elizabeth Dhondt and Elizabeth Stevens led a discussion entitled, The Grant Close-Out Process: Keeping It Real.

Bruce Jones extending thanks to faculty and research staff for attending the workshops throughout the year and special thanks to Jennifer Condon & Elizabeth Dhondt from Research Financial Management and Elizabeth Stevens from the Division of Sponsored Research for Conducting the Workshop on April 3.

Jennifer Condon, USF Associate Controller , Elizabeth Dhondt, Assistant Controller & Elizabeth Stevens, Assistant Director, Division of Sponsored Research Discussing Grant Financials “The Do’s and Don’ts”