A Children’s Literature Conference for Kids (K-8)
University of South Florida, Tampa
College of Education

Event Date: Friday, March 7th

Announcing the USF CLiCK Conference!
The USF CLiCK Conference is a day-long workshop for children (K-8) who have written and/or illustrated stories, poetry, or non-fiction. The purpose of the conference is to honor the creativity of children and to support and showcase the writing and illustrations of diverse students.

During the scheduled events, children share their writing with each other, listen to guest speakers who are nationally recognized authors and illustrators, and participate in activities to develop their writing and artistic talents.

The 2014 CLiCK conference theme:
