Faculty Position #6063

Assistant/Associate Professor, School Psychology
Department of Psychological and Social Foundations
Effective August 2008

The Department of Psychological and Social Foundations supports 8 degrees offered in programs in the areas of Counselor Education, School Psychology, College Student Affairs, and Interdisciplinary Studies. The Department has 26 full-time faculty members and offers degree programs at the MA, Ed.S, and Ph.D. levels. The School Psychology Program offers Ed.S. and Ph.D. degrees. The doctoral program is accredited by the American Psychological Association and both the specialist and doctoral programs are approved by the National Association of School Psychologists. The program reflects a scientist-practitioner training philosophy in preparing school psychologists who emphasize evidence-based practices within an ecological problem-solving framework. The faculty are productive researchers and scholars and are actively involved at all levels of the profession. They have generated more than $25 million dollars in external funding over the last ten years.

The Position
The major responsibilities of this 9-month, tenure earning position include: teaching courses at the specialist and doctoral levels in the areas of instructional assessment/intervention, consultation, systems change, professional practices, or other areas of interest to the applicant; advising, supervising and mentoring students; supervising thesis and dissertation research; developing and maintaining an active program of research and scholarship; securing external funding to support research and training agendas; and contributing to the mission of the program, department, college, and university.

Required Minimum Qualifications:

- An earned doctorate in School Psychology (from an APA-accredited and/or NASP-approved program) or a closely related field as of date of employment.

Preferred Qualifications

- Training, research, and practice in comprehensive problem solving, linking assessment to intervention, and intervention evaluation
- Expertise in academic skills assessment/intervention
- Expertise in consultation and systems change
- Experience as a school psychologist
- A program of research and scholarly work commensurate with the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor
- Experience with culturally and socio-economically diverse populations
- Successful teaching experience in higher education
- Evidence of potential for success in grant writing
- Evidence of the ability to work effectively in a collaborative environment
- Demonstrated experience or potential for mentoring and supervising dissertation and thesis research as well as professional practices and behavior
- Hold or be eligible for and willing to seek licensure as a psychologist in the State of Florida

Salary: Salary competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience

The Application Process
Applications should include a letter describing the candidate’s qualifications for the position relative to the required and preferred qualifications identified above, current vita, transcripts for all graduate-level study (unofficial copies are acceptable at time of application, but two copies of official transcripts are required before interview), the names, addresses, telephone numbers and e-mail addresses of three (3) professional references, letters of recommendation from those three persons, and preprints/reprints of select publications. Please specify Position #6063.

For more information about the position or application process, please contact Michael Curtis at (813) 974-6354 or Curtis@tempest.coedu.usf.edu.

Send applications/nominations to:
Search Committee in School Psychology
c/o Dr. Michael Curtis
University of South Florida
4202 E. Fowler Avenue, EDU162
Tampa, FL  33620-5650

Applications must be received by 5:00 p.m., EST, November 16, 2007.

The University of South Florida is an equal opportunity, affirmative action, equal access institution. For disability accommodations, contact Vanessa Augustine (813-974-3246 or Augustin@tempest.coedu.usf.edu) at least five working days in advance of need.